

BOTANICAL ILLUSTRATION CLASSES

APPLICATION FORM

Thank you for your enquiry regarding the Friends of the Royal Botanic Gardens and classes in Botanical Illustration. Enclosed is an application form for membership of the Friends (or visit www.rbgfriendsmelbourne.org) Most people find it more economical to join the Friends before commencing classes. Details of current times and class fees are outlined below. Enrolment is on a per term basis.

Please note that 'Mixed' classes are suitable for beginners as well as those with some experience of botanical illustration, whilst 'Intermediate' classes are suitable only for those with some experience.

If you wish to register for a class, please indicate your preference(s) as appropriate on the form below. Priority is given to existing students who wish to re-enrol. If a place is available in your preferred class, we will contact you for payment to secure your place.

Do not send payment with this application.

There are four 8-week terms during the year, commencing in February, April, July and October (approx). Next term begins week commencing 01/02/10.

Beginners will be introduced to plant anatomy and the most commonly used techniques of pencil and pen-and-ink drawing and watercolour while more experienced students will be able to work on paintings and drawings of their choice with one-to-one attention.
