

21 April 2008

MEDIA RELEASE

Spoil your mother on Mothers' Day at RBG Melbourne and RBG Cranbourne

Enjoy a relaxing day at RBG Melbourne or RBG Cranbourne with your mother on Sunday 11 May – Mothers' Day.

Treat her to a day of delicious food and botanical beauty – and a day she will remember for a long time.

RBG Melbourne and RBG Cranbourne have put together two experiences to share with mothers.

The Australian Garden at RBG Cranbourne is a wonderful setting to enjoy Mothers' Day.

Children who bring their mum to the Australian Garden on her special day between 9am and 5pm will get her into the Australian Garden for free!

The Boonerwurrung Café is creating delicious treats to thank all mothers for their hard work this year, including a gourmet BBQ in the Rockpool Pavilion.

Botanically-inspired offerings will be on sale at the Gardens Shop in the Australian Garden during the day. Make sure you take advantage of the 10% discount on any purchase of Country Cuisine products at the Gardens Shop on Sunday 11 May.

Bookings: Boonerwurrung Café at the Australian Garden, Royal Botanic Gardens Cranbourne - 03 5990 2247

Please note: The following entry fees apply for the Australian Garden: $9.25 adults, $6.90 concession, children under 16 free. Mums accompanied by at least one of their children will enter the Australian Garden Free on Mothers' Day only.

In Melbourne, enjoy a special mother's day breakfast menu at The Terrace as well as the restaurant's Mothers' Day menu which includes high-tea platters and yummy items such as finger sandwiches, mini cakes, baby scones and chocolates.

If you spend $20 at the Terrace you will receive free entry into the draw to win a 'pamper hamper' for Mum containing lots of goodies.

Bookings: The Terrace @the Royal Botanic Gardens Melbourne -: 03 9820 9590

Media inquiries: John Myers on (03) 9818 6339.