

12 November 2007

Feast your senses on wine, art, food and music at the Australian Garden

Enjoy a botanic banquet with a difference in Australia's newest botanic garden – the Australian Garden.

Especially organised for the Melbourne Food and Wine Festival, the Royal Botanic Gardens Cranbourne is hosting an indulgent feast of wine, art, food and music in the award winning Australian Garden.

The evening will include the chance to marvel at some of the majestic landscape features, such as the Escarpment Wall and Ephemeral Lake sculptures.

Sip on champagne as you watch the sun set over the spectacular Red Sand Garden before dining in style on dishes featuring native ingredients like Lemon Myrtle-braised poussin, paperbark- smoked salmon and BBQ Kangaroo. The food is complimented by local wines from the acclaimed Mornington Peninsula wine region.

And as the evening draws on, listen to the gentle sound of the flute and harp drifting across the sand dunes while hearing artists talk about the inspirational Australian landscape.

Details: Botanic Banquet

Saturday 23 February

Time: 5.45pm–9pm

Cost: $95

Bookings essential Tel: (03) 5990 2245

Media inquiries: Penny Underwood on (03) 9818 8540.